September 2017 - June 2018

Presentation of the organization:

Sahel Vert is an Apolitical, non-confessional and non-profit organization, which aims to promote social development in France and Mali by carrying out actions in the fields of prevention, social integration, solidarity, and the arts and culture according to the precepts of social and solidarity economy, sustainable development and human values. Sahel Vert was founded 24 years ago.

The activities of Sahel Vert are organized in three departments:

- Education department: conceptualization of a personal project for youth, designed to implement a course prior to social inclusion and employability / or preventing acts of deviance. The idea is to involve youth in a project to improve their soft skills.
- Initiatives' pole: public engagement tool through various workshops solidarity co-production, educational support for young people.
- Research pole: Implementation of a space for a participatory research to meet the needs of the territories in the social, economic and environmental fields.

Proposed activities to the volunteers:

Volunteers will be integrated in the team of the association and participate in various activities:

1. « School Remediation Program » (2 volunteers): A partnership between the National Education System, Sahel Vert, the Judicial Protection of Youth and the Children Social Assistance. The objective is to alternate between the secondary school in a dedicated class and practicing sustainable development activities at Sahel Vert (these activities are self-productive workshops such as vegetable gardening, recycling and renovation of 2nd hand equipment, Firewood, sheep breeding and poultry farming.).

Volunteers will support and the pupils and lead the activities.

2. Promotion of artistic and cultural activities (1 volunteer): A partnership between the association "La Margelle" which aims to promote the arts and culture and Sahel Vert.

The volunteer will work on building bridges that allow the Sahel Vert target group to access cultural activities and events, and reciprocally question the practices of La Margelle to make its activities accessible to the greatest number.

The volunteers will participate to the daily team brainstorming and to the weekly team meeting.

The volunteers will also participate to the daily life of the organisation, together with the employees, the local volunteers and the beneficiaries (collective lunch, cleaning, etc.)

The volunteers will also have a dedicate time for French language courses (on line /classroom if needed and if possible).
