Duration of the ESC project

The project will be take part between April 1st of 2019 and March 31st of 2020.

Two volunteers (Armenia and Italy).

Escull Solidari

Escull Solidari is a non-profit organization that works with young people since 2004 to improve the quality of life of our community. Today we are 54 people working as employees within our organization (four people coordinating and a person doing administrative work in our office) and more than 15 volunteers working on different projects.

We are developing projects in the youth field on the following topics:

- Promotion of a healthy life and prevention of drug consumption through free time activities: working with youth departments of local governments to avoid the use of drugs through workshops and games.
- Promotion youth active participation in our society: developing projects to increase the participation skills of young people and looking for new ways of youth participation.
- Local volunteering: coordinating a group of young volunteers to improve the situation of children and young people from the poor areas of our city.
- European volunteers: sending and hosting volunteers in the Solidarity Corps Program.
- Workshops within educational institutions to promote peace, protection of the environment, cultural promotion, gender equality, etc.
- Actions to prevent gender violence in youth events.
- Erasmus + projects as a tool to empower young people and develop their skills.
- Social integration of children and youth in the youth welfare home through workshops and support school.
- Workshops to improve the social skills of young people with social problems.
- Summer camps and summer schools.
- Extracurricular activities to promote the arts, sports and non-formal education.
- Erasmus+ TC to improve the skills of the youth leaders and youth workers.

Aims

You will take part in a social project working specially with children and youngsters in different projects in the local, regional and European level. Here you can see the goals of our projects:

- Promote the culture and language of our islands at the same time that we facilitate an intercultural dialogue.
- Fight against any type of discrimination.
- Promote the active participation of citizens, starting with the youngest.
- Protect and improve our environment (social and environmental).
- Facilitate the social integration of population groups that are at risk or in a situation of exclusion.
- Promote democratic values of solidarity and human rights.
- Promote healthy lifestyle habits and prevent drug use.
- Promote reading.
- Fight against gender violence and work for gender equality.

Tasks

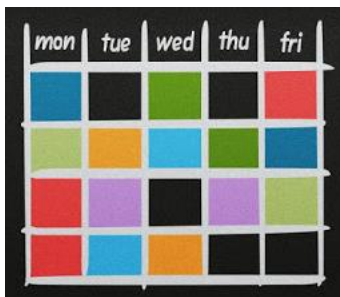

The main task will be to support the coordination and administration staff of our organization in the office that we have in Gabriel Maura street, number 6, in Palma. The tasks will be:

- Cooperate in the implementation of activities for children and youngsters.
- Help to prepare and develop European projects.
- Prepare the different materials that our staff will need to develop our activities.
- Keep organized our warehouse.
- Cooperate in the dissemination of our activities and projects.
- Participate in events to promote Erasmus+ program and European Solidarity Corps.
- Assist to our administrative and coordination staff in the daily job.

The tasks will be split between the two volunteers. The volunteers will cooperate at:

- Schools of Palma developing non-formal educational activities with our staff.
- Different municipalities developing activities for youth and children (libraries, schools, social services, etc).
- Civic platforms developing actions to improve the situation of our city.

- Local volunteering project for youth and children.
- Erasmus+ actions.
